Call to Order:

Dale Mottola, President, called the regular monthly meeting of the Tuxedo Chamber of Commerce to order at 5:40PM on Wednesday June 28th, 2006 in the Community Room of the Tuxedo Town Hall.

Financial Update:

Greg Stevens to update Chamber at next meeting

Approval of Minutes:

Minutes from the May meeting were reviewed and approved by a unanimous vote.

Update on Inaugural Chamber Golf Outing, September 11th, 2006:

Jerry Mottola and Gregory Stevens stated that the print brochures have been circulating and have received a favorable response. They are currently posted on the website and are downloadable. Seeking Chamber Members for assistance (and is not limited to Tuxedo) for hole sponsorships and items to be donated for general raffle. Jerry also mentioned that there are other opportunities for sponsorship, i.e. beverage cart. Greg Duffy was voted unanimously to head the committee for raffle donations. The consensus was that we would award a trophy to the winner of the tournament.

Update on Proposed Sign Law:

Dale Mottola attended the workshop between the Town Board and the Architectural Review Board. She also informed us that there will be another meeting in 30 days to finalize the document for public hearing. We are currently waiting for the next draft of the document to be available. It was suggested that the Chamber redistribute stand on sign law.

Tuxedo Farmer's Market Update:

Craig Newell reported that the 1st week went off great and all the vendors were very happy with the results, "The fish guy was very popular," he adds. Craig Newell and Fred Jones will have a budget report momentarily. Craig also reminded the vendors about insurance.

Noel Jablonski of Angelheart Antiques was business of the week on June 24th and she said despite the rain, she had a great time and received a very favorable response from customers. Andy Berish reports that Leslie Haines will be artist of the week for July 1st and 8th. Dale Mottola confirmed that all 20 weeks were already filled. Discussion took place between members as to where to position the Business of the Week. It was suggested to keep the booth under the porte-cochère at the railroad station.

Family Fun Day:

Dale Mottola asked if we should be a co-sponsor as it may be a conflict with the golf outing. In years past, we conducted the raffle. It was decided by unanimous vote to discuss the specifics at next month meeting regarding the Chamber's participation.

Adjournment:

The meeting was adjourned at 7:50PM
